Downing honored by Rehabilitation Commission

William Downing of Brookline, coordinator of the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission's Social Security Reimbursement Project, was honored by the MRC with a Commissioner's Award at a recent event in Shrewsbury.

Brookline real estate agents honored

Elissa K. Rogovin and Cathy A. Messing, Realtors with Karp, Liberman, & Kern Sotheby's International Realty, 391 Langley Road, have been awarded the Accredited Buyer Representation designation by the Real Estate Buyer's Agent Council Inc. of the National Association of Realtors. Certification comes only after successfully completing a comprehensive course in buyer representation and submitting documentation verifying professional experience.

Rogovin and Messing are also proud to announce that they were named the Massachusetts Real Estate experts for the National Association of Divorce for Women and Children, an organization founded to empower women during and after divorce to regain their confidence, build self-esteem, and create a foundation of life skills to enhance and improve the quality of life for themselves and their children.

"We really hope to alleviate the stress of home buying and selling decisions as a real estate resource for women going through divorce," said Rogovin, a Brookline native. "We have close working relationships with mortgage brokers, real estate attorneys and other vendors key to the home buying and selling process that we will share with these women.”

“As women who have experienced divorce personally, we are especially attuned to the care and concern that these women need during this huge life transition,” said Messing, a longtime Brookline resident. “We can refer to our network of Sotheby’s real estate offices across the globe and facilitate as many of their needs as possible.”

The two Realtors will write a monthly real-estate tips feature, contribute articles for the association’s Web site and join the other professionals, including lawyers, financial advisers, professional organizers and therapists, working with this vital organization.

Teacher, resident named to Boston League board

Brookline resident Dennis Kunian, principal of the Kunian Group, was named to the Board of Directors for the League School of Greater Boston, one of the first schools in the country to specialize in teaching children with autism.
